National Family History Month

Be part of National Family History Month in August 2017!

It is a great opportunity to find out about researching your family history and understanding the social context within which our ancestors lived. There will be hundreds of events held throughout Australia and online. Start tracing your family tree, talk to distant relatives

Attend a family history seminar or workshop	Listen to a webinar , podcast or Google hangout
Write your life story or interview a relative	Look at genealogy magazines at your newsagent
Organise your family photos	Have a family reunion
Visit your local genealogy/ family history society	Visit areas of family significance
Browse the genealogy section of your local public library	Explore family history sites on the internet
Organise and label your family photos	Check out the online calendar for events in your area

For lots of other great ideas visit www.familyhistorymonth.org.au to see events in your local area including online events. Plus there are some great prizes to win in the giveaway. Sponsors as at 1 Mar 2017.
